Drug Related Intimidation Reporting Programme

The Garda National Drugs Unit and the National Family Support Network, have developed 'the Drug Related Intimidation Reporting Programme' to respond to the needs of drug users and family members experiencing drug related intimidation.

There is a drugs related intimidation Inspector in every Garda Division.

In Tipperary this is Inspector James White, based in Thurles Garda Station 0504 25100.

Persons seeking assistance from Inspector James White can arrange to meet him either formally or informally.

An Garda Síochána will deal with this issue in the utmost confidential and secure fashion.

Family Support Networks are autonomous self-help organisation that respects the lived experiences of families affected by substance misuse in a welcoming non-judgemental atmosphere. It endeavours to provide accurate information for families by developing personalised services that meet the real identified needs of families. The services in Tipperary are listed above.
