Civic Reception Cllr. Eddie O'Meara Cathaoirleach of the members for the Carrick-on-Suir Municipal District formally proposed the following motion:

'That the Members for the Carrick-on-Suir Municipal District accord a civic reception to Mr Eoin Kelly in recognition of his achievements as a hurler for his Club and County.'

In proposing the motion, the Cathaoirleach reflected on Mr Kelly's achievements as a hurler from a young age with the C.J. Kickham Club in Mullinahone, and as player and captain of the Tipperary hurling team.

The motion was seconded by Cllr. Imelda Goldsboro, and each of the members spoke in favour of the motion.

At the invitation of the Cathaoirleach, members of the Oireachtas present, and distinguished guests from the GAA spoke in tribute to Mr Kelly, speaking of his sporting achievements and his admirable personal comments.

The District Administrator then polled the members, who voted as follows:

The Cathaoirleach declared the motion carried.

Mr Kelly then responded to the motion, thanking the members for the honour bestowed and acknowledging the tributes paid by the distinguished guests.

A presentation was made to Mr Kelly by the Cathaoirleach to mark the occasion.

The Cathaoirleach thanked the C.J. Kickham GAA Club for hosting the civic reception, and extended his gratitude to all who were involved in the organisation of the event.

This concluded the business of the meeting.

Signed:
